

Diane L. David (Production Stage Manager) Diane is happy to return to the production team here at Palos Verdes Performing Arts, and is most thankful for you, the audience, who continue to support live theater! Diane's career in the arts has included five decades of performing (favorite roles include Yenta, Mother Superior, and Mrs. Higgins), music directing (including being MD for Stephen Schwartz's production of Children of Eden) and stage managing (Penn & Teller, Dick Van Dyke, Lily Tomlin, Ben Vereen). She has recently become involved in fundraising activities for Behind the Scenes (behindthescenescharity.org), which provides support to entertainment technicians during times of need due to serious illness or injury.
